

LambEx Producer Field Day

Optimal preparation for Live Export

Wednesday 8 August 2018

Wellard Baldvis Feedlot, 263 Telephone Lane, Baldvis WA 6171

Program

06.45 Delegates can meet a bus at the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre Plaza (between the Adina Hotel and PCEC Doors) for return travel to Baldvis.

08.00 - 08.45 – Shearing Shed

Breakfast, Tea and Coffee on Arrival

Note: only registered guests will be able to enter the feedlot and must sign the registered list upon arrival.

08.45 – Shearing Shed

Welcome and introduction to the day's proceedings

Sharon Dundon, David Beatty - LEP, Wellard representative

09.00 – 9.45 – Shearing Shed

Australia's Livestock Exports – Opening address and industry update

Sam Brown - LiveCorp

The Field Day needs to begin by addressing the elephant in the room and acknowledging the issues currently faced by the industry but also highlight the benefits of the industry. Sam will outline the recent regulatory and industry changes as well as the trade impacts to give a picture of what the future looks like.

9.45 – 10.30 - Shearing Shed

The Supply Chain Story

Holly Ludeman HAFCO & Renee Willis AAV

- Case study approach looking at each stage of the supply chain, what is involved and who does what
- How the producer fits in the Supply Chain
- How valuable a product it is
- Animal welfare is everyone's responsibility and preparation is key.
- Include photos and videos

10.30 – 11.00 - Shearing Shed - Morning tea, coffee and networking break

11.00 – 11.45 Shearing Shed

Optimal Preparation for Live Export

Panel / Q&A session with exporter, RP Manager, AAV, Stockperson

- Tips for live export key preparation – what producers should be doing and why
- Government regulations and legal obligations for producers
- Common preparation pitfalls and ways to avoid them
- Cost & impact of sending livestock out of spec and ill-prepared for export
- Vendor Declarations – unnecessary paperwork or essential advice for live export? The importance of accurate and honest information

11.45 – 12.15 – Shearing Shed

- Australia's Livestock Market Outlook - key trends, issues and challenges
- Tim Ryan, MLA

12.15 – 13.15 - LUNCH

Exporters, Service providers, researchers and technical experts will be on-hand to answer any questions over the hour lunch break.

13.15 – 15.30

Research and Practical Session

4 X 30 minute concurrent, rotating sessions around the feedlot

Station 1 – Quarantine Shed Number 1

*Sheep inanition – what can you do to minimise frequency and impact?
Anne Barnes - Murdoch University*

Station 2 – Shearing Shed

*Animal Welfare Indicators through the supply chain
Teresa Collins/Bruce Gallen – Murdoch University/BSMG*

Station 3 – Receival Yards

*Heat Research & Management – results, impacts and outcomes
Shane Maloney UWA*

Station 4 – Drafting/processing yards

- Pinkeye in sheep*
- Mike Laurence – cause, prevention and cure – latest research
 - RP operator – impact in feedlot, transport, vessel and discharge

15.30 – CLOSE Networking and opportunity to ask questions at the conclusion of the day

16.00 – Coach DEPARTS for PCEC.